UNION DISTRICT TEACHERS INSTITUTE

The teachers of Union district held an institute at Good Hope Friday. The following program was observed:

Opening exercises and roll call.

Appointment of committees, and the outlining of the district institute, and reading circle for the present school year.

General discussion of Round Table Topics:

(a) Should not the same degree of morality be required of all school officers, that is required of teachers?

(b) Best methods of obtaining a school library. Its value, and use.

(c) What are the requirements of teachers, relative to the enforcing of the compulsory attendance law?

1:30 p. m.

Music, by institute.

An informal discussion of the individual problems that confront the teachers in their daily work in the school room. (In discussing this topic, it is expected that each teacher will present any unusual or peculiar difficulties with which she has to deal in her present term's work.)

Recitation, Miss Maude Sommerville.

"Rewards and Punishment," Howard L. Curry.

"What can the teacher do to lead her pupils to form habits of polite behavior?" Byron E. Bailey.

"Discipline, and the means of obtaining it," Brenna O. Barnside.

"The Object of Our Public School System," C. Wade Post.

"What reasons exist for having vocal music taught in the country schools?" E. Wayne Coffindaffer.

"Should Bookkeeping and General History be eliminated from our school curriculum?" S. J. Ward.

"Why is the teaching of penmanship so much neglected in our district schools?" A. J. Curry.

Lecture, "What Should We Read?" Prof. W. H. Webb.

Extra fine ice cream served a Hotel Waldo each day from noon until midnight June 13th.

SWEET MELODY FLOUR.

Notice

To all whom it may concern:

You are hereby notified that the Monongahela Development Company, a corporation under and by virtue of the laws of the State of West Virginia, has applied to the Council of the Town of Adamston, Harrison County, West Virginia, by filing with Daniel Cutright, the recorder of said town, their application for a franchise for the purpose of constructing and operating a gas plant together with necessary pipe lines, through and over the streets, roads, alleys and squares of said town and other places, for the purpose of furnishing gas to the citizens and residents of said town and other places, for fuel and illuminating purposes. This said application will be presented to the Council of the said Town of Adamston, at a special meeting to be held on the 21st day of December, 1905, or as soon thereafter as the said council will consider the application, at which time this notice will have been published and the application filed, at least thirty days. This notice is given in compliance with chapter 29 of the Acts of 1901, of the Legislature of West Virginia, and published for thirty days in the Clarksburg Telegram, a daily newspaper of general circulation, published in the City of Clarksburg, in Harrison county, West Virginia.

Dated this November 18, 1905.

CRIME OF THE CENTURY.

That the prosecution and persecution of Caleb Powers is the crime of the period, overshadowing all other crimes that may be charged to any people, one has but to read the following from the Parkersburg Dispatch, which is an interview with one who was on the scene and saw and knew what happened at the time Gobel was killed, and ought to disgust Democrats with themselves in charging the crime to Powers, and make Republicans of them, like the one interviewed says he has become since the infamous prosecution of Powers began.

"Talk about the persecution of Dreyfus, the French army officer, it doesn't compare in the same breath with the persecution of Caleb Powers in Kentucky."

"Tina spoke a smooth-faced, nice looking young man at The Chancellor last night. Straight as an arrow, clear eye, handsome countenance, he looked the gentleman which he is, every inch of him."

"I was born a Democrat, reared a Democrat, was a Democrat, he continued, 'until the persecution of Howard made me a Republican. The persecution of Caleb Powers is the crowning shame of present day American history."

"The man who spoke these words was J. C. Rogers, of Maysville, Ky. He is a young man of wealth and social position. Inquiry developed that he was formerly a captain in the Kentucky militia."

"No one can imagine what we went through at Frankfort, the capital, when Gobel was assassinated. No body knows what an awful loss of human lives was narrowly averted there. On the night that Caleb Powers, John Davis and others were indicted, the two I have just named slipped through the guard lines into the capital. I shall never forget it. Powers was as cool as a cucumber and as brave as a lion. Outside was the sheriff with a howling mob behind him. Davis cringed and was frightened almost to death. He was the chief of the capital police. Powers, young, handsome, sturdy and highly educated, said to me, 'Captain, all I ask is your protection tonight. Those would hang me to a telephone pole if they could get me. I am innocent of this crime. Do you suppose that a man of my intelligence would be a party to Gobel's assassination, when his death would be of no benefit to me; and do you suppose that I would furnish the key to my office for an assassin, when the very fact of Gobel being shot from my office, would bring me into it? The galling gun was taken up stairs into the capitol and turned on the mob. Every soldier lay of his belly with gun cocked. Had the mob attempted to enter the building the loss of life would have been appalling."

"Captain Rogers continued to tell of the conditions that existed in those days in Frankfort; how, even society, split on the question. Of Taylor he said:

"Taylor was out of his element; out of his class, but he was fairly elected. Caleb Powers is a college graduate, a splendid young man, against whom I cast my vote. He is no more guilty of complicity in Gobel's assassination than I am. He was eight miles distant from Frankfort, traveling on a train to that city, when the murder took place, and in three trials he has had the 36 men who have sat as jurors in his case were out and out Gobel Democrats. It is an outrage and a shame. It is a disgrace to Kentucky and the United States. It turned me from a 'rebel' Democrat to a Republican, and all my family. The persecution of Dreyfus is nothing compared to the persecution of Caleb Powers. If there is a God in heaven he will some day get justice, but God seems to have forsaken Caleb Powers and Kentucky in this dire extremity."

It is not to be wondered at that a Democratic paper upon learning that Congressman Dovenor will be a candidate for re-nomination and re-election should announce that there is not being much said about Fairmont candidates, but it does seem a little strange that that paper should thus gauge McKinney and Barnes, both of whom were so badly defeated by the Captain. Maybe there are some Democratic aspirants not half so good, who have led the sheet into reflections on the party's gallant standard bearers, that they themselves may profit.

Our neighbor is beginning to damn the dam and before the sheet gets through the public will likely be treated to a lot of damn foolishness. At any rate it is to be a dam with the end off or on.

The insurance matter is worrying the Democrats a whole lot, and yet the investigation was ordered by a Republican legislature and is being conducted by Republicans.

THE STORK BRINGS JOY

To the household but how about the mother? Has she been joyful during the weeks and months preceding the advent?

Two many mothers find it a time of fearful anxiety because of the knowledge that they are "not good health."

They have allowed weaknesses, pains and drains to accumulate till the health is completely undermined and they are "more than discouraged," and all because they have been misadvised by well-meaning friends or malpractised by an inefficient doctor.

To all such here is the news that there is a remedy that will heal and not hurt.

It was discovered by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the earth, for the remedial agents so liberally provided therein. He took Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root, Golden Seal root, and by extracting, combining and preserving without the use of alcohol, the glyceric extracts of these natural remedies he has given to the world Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which has to its credit the enviable and unparalleled record of more than a half-million of cures in the last forty years.

"Only those who have given Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a trial can appreciate what a boon it is to suffering women," writes Miss Virginia Seaborn, of 28 E. 38th St., Toronto. "For two years I suffered intensely from female weakness until life was a burden to me. I had discharging, burning, watery, and very dependent, and I had no strength, but without success, tried several remedies, but to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I began immediately to improve, and in four months time I was as well and strong as ever."

Constipation cured by Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.
